

Nomination Form-CRIC Board of Directors

The Canadian Research and Insights Council (CRIC) is seeking nominations for candidates to fill four positions on its Board of Directors that are up for renewal. CRIC welcomes nominations of leaders from across our industry including those on the client-side and in agencies specializing in new and innovative approaches to gathering insights.

A candidate must be nominated by two individuals, at least one of whom must not work at the same company as the nominee. The candidates must also acknowledge acceptance of the nomination and be willing to serve on the CRIC Board of Directors for a three-year term commencing January 2022.
